

Bassano Library news

The Bassano Library Board wishes to announce a change to the membership costs. We are pleased to announce that at the beginning of September there will be no fee for eligible members under 18. As a consequence the family pass will be eliminated.

Each member will be given a plastic membership card which must be shown when checking out books or other items.

The Bassano Library offers many services, we have books available from all the libraries in the Shortgrass system including Brooks and Medicine Hat. This includes E-Books and a limited amount of E-Readers, and spoken books. We have music on CD's, movies on DVD's including Blue-

Ray. These may be ordered through the library or online. The Library is a WIFI hot spot, we have many computers, a printer and a Fax machine is also available. We also give assistance in setting up your own E-Reader, and give basic computer training.

Talking of training the library hosts the English as a Second Language "ABLE Program" contact 403 641 4407.
